For Souls Still Waiting...

"The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it." Psalm 68:11

Online ministry:

Mark Zuckerberg, the founder and CEO of Facebook was recently in India where he said he was there to get the "next billion online." His stated reason was that broadening internet access was vital to economic development, thus alleviating poverty.

Whatever reason people have for gaining access to the internet, the fact is that our Lord's Churches should be in a position to make a difference by giving them the Gospel of Christ. It has been estimated by experts that by 2017, 5 Billion people will be using smartphones. Of course we are optimizing everything for access on smartphones, tablets as well as computers. We live in interesting times.

As system development continues, we are registering websites, gathering, producing and preparing content for the sites, and generally making ready for this huge effort.

A number of churches and individuals have expressed interest in being involved with the effort. In fact, a couple of churches have already committed to helping monthly with the costs and offerings have already been given to advance this work. The Lord always pays for what He orders!

Missionaries and national pastors from a number of countries have expressed desire to cooperate with this effort. It is so refreshing to see a number of them who we have worked with in publishing in years past step forward as they have caught the vision for the possibilities with this effort.

I could go on and on, but suffice it to say, this is the largest thing we have ever put our hands to, and the Lord has blessed it. Please keep praying as it also is accompanied with much opposition.

Urdu New Testament:

After many delays while proofreading and editing were being done, we are anxious to print this important translation. Funds have been raised by one of the printing ministries and we are doing the logistics now to print it. The plan is to print inside Pakistan as well as a smaller printing here in the USA.

It will be a joyous day when the New Testaments are in print and being distributed. Please pray for that and for the Word of God to have free course with this important language.

We are also working through the details of a large printing in the Thai language (in Thailand) which will involve several organizations and missionaries who wish to have copies of a 320 page book of illustrated Bible Stories.

Health:

October 2015

Several have asked about our health. We are under alternative medical treatments which in the long term should help with many of the problems we both have faced. Meanwhile we are doing what we are supposed to do and being patient. This is part of the reason we are still in the USA. Thank you for praying!

From Krinny:

The last 18 months has seen us traveling extensively. We have visited almost all of our supporting churches, something we haven't done in many years. We have the most phenomenal supporting churches any missionary family could ask for. Many of these churches have supported us for between 20-30 years. Many are small, but they have been so incredibly faithful in their giving. How we appreciate all of you. You know who you are and so does the Lord. Thank you.

We are waiting on the Lord for His exact timing as we prepare to go back to Thailand. So far He is not sharing that information with us...so we wait. Waiting is hard. It is like watching the coffee water boil at 6:00 AM, as you stand at the stove in your pajamas, with your hair sticking up in all directions. Waiting patiently is not something I do well, so the Lord is evidently making me practice, but I am learning to let go and just trust His timing, stop worrying about the things I can't rush, and rest, both physically and mentally in Him.

This is the longest time we have been in America in the last 12 years. America is not the country we left 12 years ago. I am writing this on Veteran's Day, and I pray that America will survive or that the Lord will come for us soon. Until then, much remains to be done for Him.
